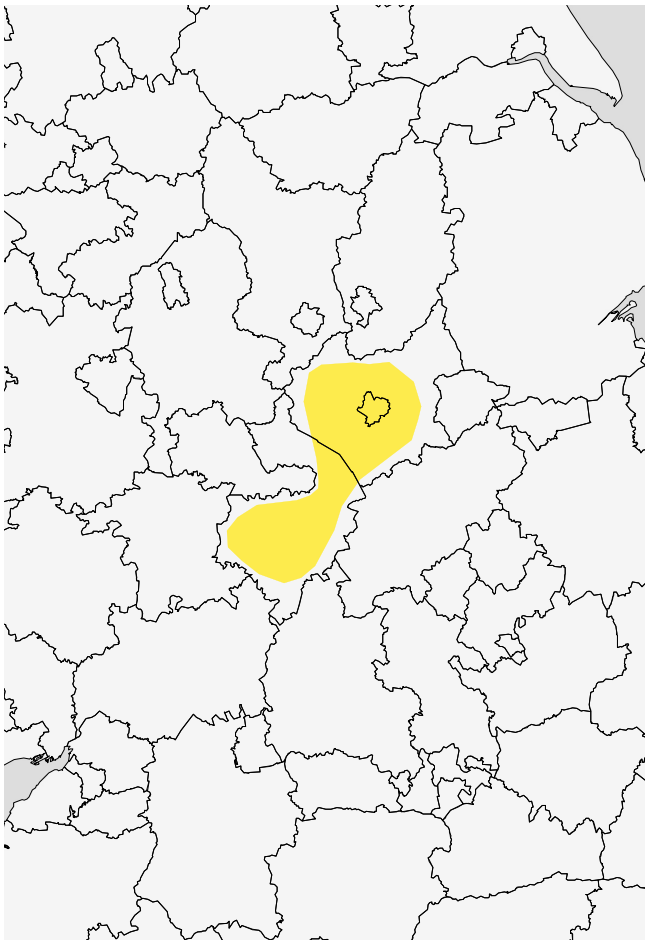
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
14:00 Thu 15 Feb 2024 and
03:00 Fri 16 Feb 2024



A further spell of rain is expected on Thursday afternoon and night.

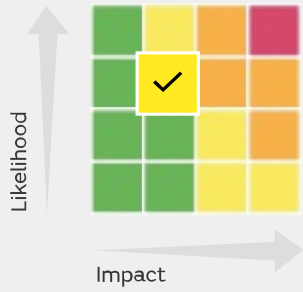
What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer

Further details

More rain, on already saturated ground, is expected to move north and east to affect parts of the Midlands on Thursday afternoon and, although there remains some uncertainty in the amount of rainfall and timing, 10 to 20 mm may fall quite widely. As a result flooding of a few homes and businesses is possible from rivers. The rain will start to die out from the west after midnight.

What should I do?
Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



Medium likelihood of low impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.
People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.
Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
